Dear Mr. Casey:

Thank you for inviting me to take part in the Future Soviet Technological Threat Panel that convened on October 4 & 5. I found being a member of the panel to be extremely interesting and stimulating, as has been all of my interface with your OSWR group.

I appreciate your personal interest in futures issues. We in the United States can do a much better job of future threat assessment than has been done in the past and the personal interest of a man of your stature helps focus attention on this important work.

It was a pleasure meeting you and I look forward to working with you and your people in the future.

Thank you for your hospitality at lunch and dinner.
